

Name: _____

Date: _____

Voting Rights Act of 1965

The paragraph below tells about a special date in August history. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

On August 6, 1965 President Lyndon Johnson sign a law that made it easier for African Americans to vote in US elections. Up until that time, some communitys attempted to discriminate agains black people and members of other minority group. They requird voters to take written tests or pay special taxes four the write to vote The Voting Rights Act of 1965 put an end to voter discrimination.

© 2004 by Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Voting Rights Act of 1965

The paragraph below tells about a special date in August history. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

On August 6, 1965 President Lyndon Johnson sign a law that made it easier for African Americans to vote in US elections. Up until that time, some communitys attempted to discriminate agains black people and members of other minority group. They requird voters to take written tests or pay special taxes four the write to vote The Voting Rights Act of 1965 put an end to voter discrimination.

© 2004 by Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.