Nevada, the 36th State
The paragraph below tells about a special date in October history. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

On October 31, 1864, Nevada became the 36th U.S. state. With more than 110,000 square miles of land, it is the seventh largest state. Have you heard of Las Vegas! While it is the largest city in Nevada by population, Carson City is the state capital. The state’s natural features include large lakes, the Colorado River, and high peaks. In fact, Nevada's name comes from a Spanish word meaning "snowcapped."
