Read the paragraph below. In that paragraph, everybody's favorite adventurer, Mrs. Waffenschmidt, offers clues about the place she is visiting today. Use those clues to help you figure out where in the world Mrs. Waffenschmidt is. Write your answer on the line at the bottom of the page.

I just love saying the name of this capital city: Katmandu. Isn't that a cool name for a city? Found in the highest mountains in the world, this country that borders India is home to the highest mountain peak in the entire world. It's about 5-1/2 miles high! While here, I didn't shake hands with people that I met. Instead, I used the land's traditional greeting. That custom, called "Namaste," calls for two people to place their palms together as if making a prayer gesture. While here, I also visited a Buddhist stupa. It was very beautiful.

Can you name the country I am visiting and the mountain chain and mountain peak?
