

Name: _____

THE U.S. ELECTION PROCESS

Directions: In the United States, most elections are held on the first Tuesday in November. What do you know about elections in the United States? Use the information at the Web site listed below to fill in the circles next to each correct answer.

Web Resources: Ben's Guide to the U.S. Government for Kids
<http://bensguide.gpo.gov/3-5/election>

1. U. S. Senators serve for a term of _____ years.
 1                       2                       4                       6
2. U.S. Representatives serve for a term of _____ years.
 1                       2                       4                       6
3. The U.S. Senate has _____ members.
 75                       100                       435                       500
4. The U.S. House of Representatives has _____ members.
 75                       100                       435                       500
5. The U.S. _____ includes all U.S. Senators and Representatives.
 Capitol                       Congress                       Senate                       government
6. The number of U.S. Representatives a state can elect depends on the state's _____.
 population                       electors                       location                       size

To learn about this year's candidates for election in your state, go to Democracy Net at <http://www.dnet.org> and click your state!