

If you could interview any U.S. president, which one would you choose? Why? What questions would you ask that president?

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

If you run out of room above, use the back of this page or get another sheet of paper.

- think about three presidents you might like to interview. Choose the one you would like to interview the most.
- give three reasons to explain your choice.
- write at least three thoughtful questions you would ask that president.
