

Name: _____

Date: _____

Constitution Day

The paragraph below tells about a special event in September history. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors in capitalization, punctuation, spelling, or grammar.

The United State Constitution was signed on September 17 1787. It established our countries first laws and said how America’s new government wood work. It explained how we have a president whose in charge, a Congress to make laws, and a Supreme Court to decide if people is following the laws. over the years, we have made “amendments” (changes) to the Constitution to protect everyone’s fredom. The first ten amedments are called the Bill of Rights.

Copyright © Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Constitution Day

The paragraph below tells about a special event in September history. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors in capitalization, punctuation, spelling, or grammar.

The United State Constitution was signed on September 17 1787. It established our countries first laws and said how America’s new government wood work. It explained how we have a president whose in charge, a Congress to make laws, and a Supreme Court to decide if people is following the laws. over the years, we have made “amendments” (changes) to the Constitution to protect everyone’s fredom. The first ten amedments are called the Bill of Rights.

Copyright © Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.