Lost IN THE UNITED STATES!

I'm driving my red convertible through one of the country's largest states.

I'm headed to Hollywood! I want to see where my favorite movies and television shows are made. If I'm lucky, maybe I'll meet a handsome movie star.

After that, I'm going to swim in the Pacific Ocean. San Diego has some wonderful beaches!

Can you guess what state I'm visiting?

Lost IN THE UNITED STATES!

I'm in the Empire State today! It was certainly a busy day because there is so much to see here. This afternoon, I visited Wall Street. Thousands of people were rushing around buying stocks, trying to make money.

Tonight I'm going to catch a Broadway musical and eat dinner in a fancy Manhattan restaurant.

When the sun rises tomorrow, I'm going to drive across the state to see a Buffalo Bills football game.

Do you know the name of the state I'm visiting?
