A.A. Milne

The paragraph below tells about a famous person born in January. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? You might look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, or grammar.

Alan Alexander Milne authored a series of beloved children’s books about a stuffed bear named Winnie-the-Pooh. The stories were based on his son, Christopher Robin Milne. E.H. Shepard illustrated the books using his own son’s bear, Growler, as the model. Originally named Edward, the bear was renamed Winnie-the-Pooh after Winnie, a Canadian World War I mascot who went to live at the London zoo.

© 2012 by Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.