The paragraph below tells about a special date in September history. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

On September 7, 1533; King Henry VIII and his wife, Anne Boleyn, welcomed a daughter into the world. Twenty-five years later, that daughter was crowned Queen Elizabeth I of England. Elizabeth was a strong and admired queen. Her mother wasn’t so lucky. Not long after Elizabeth’s birth, King Henry grew tired of Anne Boleyn and accused her of cheating on him. Henry had her beheaded. Eleven days later, Henry married again.