

The Creatures in My Yard

*In my busy backyard, you can spy
Seven pairs of finches that fly.*

*Eighty-four butterflies flutter on blooms
A score of moths scramble for room.*

*A half-dozen turtles bask in the sun,
Nine scurrying lizards make walking fun.*

*A dozen robins eye nine nervous worms
Who worry and wiggle and jiggle and squirm.*

*A lone beagle barks at a tree,
As six tiny chipmunks
Giggle and flee.*

*Nine bullfrogs croak at the barking dog.
While a dozen toads hide in a log.*

*Seven raccoons steal food from the cat.
And that is that.*
