

Name _____ Date _____

Sybil Ludington: 'The Other Paul Revere'

Sybil's Story: A Sequencing Activity

Read the statements below. Which statement tells what happened first in the story of Sybil Ludington? Write 1 next to that statement. Write 2 next to the statement that tells what happened second. Continue numbering the sentences until all ten statements are numbered in the sequence they happened.

- _____ a. Sybil set off on her horse, Star, to warn dozens of families.
- _____ b. General George Washington visited the Ludington home to thank Sybil for her courage.
- _____ c. Colonel Ludington asked his daughter, Sybil, to help warn his troops.
- _____ d. General Tryon led his troops to Danbury, where they set fire to homes and war-supply buildings.
- _____ e. A statue was built in Sybil Ludington's honor.
- _____ f. A messenger arrived at Colonel Henry Ludington's home around 9 o'clock on April 26.
- _____ g. British troops landed along Long Island Sound near Fairfield.
- _____ h. The British soldiers headed back toward Long Island Sound.
- _____ i. Colonel Ludington's troops helped stop the British from moving farther inland.
- _____ j. Messengers were sent out to warn people in nearby areas about the British activity in Danbury.