Many inventions has odd story behind them. The hot dog is one of those odd storys. It was invented by a sausage seller in St. louis. Sausages could be messy, so Anton Feuchtwanger gave his customers white gloves to where while they ate the problem was that many customer's did not return the white gloves. Thats why Feuchtwanger asked his brother-in-law, a baker to make a special roll to hold the sausage. The result: the first hot dog!
