Island of Copper

The paragraph below tells about a special place or event. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? You might look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, or grammar.

In anciant times, the island of Cyprus was know for it's copper mines. As a matter of fact, the island gets it name from the Greek word for copper. Today, people on this small island in the mediterranean sea still make small amounts of copper, but the island is more famous for its wines. A war in 1974 divide Cyprus in to two parts. The southern part is home to about 650,000 Greeks the northern part is home to about 90,000 Turkish people.
