

DINOSAUR SITES

The Dinosauricon (<http://www.dinosauricon.com>)

This site is the best place to start for information about specific dinosaurs or dinosaur families.

ZoomDinosaurs.com (<http://www.enchantedlearning.com/subjects/dinosaurs>)

This site contains lots of dinosaur information, including a useful Dinosaur Dictionary.

Dinosaur Illustrations (<http://www.search4dinosaurs.com/pictures.html>)

The dinosaur illustrations at this site include just about every type you can think of, from Acrocanthosaurus to Xiphactinus.

DinoDon.com (<http://www.dinodon.com>)

Dinosaur expert Don Lessem provides lots of dinosaur resources, including stories, facts, art, and additional links.

Dinosaurs (<http://teacher.scholastic.com/activities/dinosaurs/>)

This dinosaur site includes individual pages about many different types of dinosaurs.

Discovering Dinosaurs (<http://dinosaurs.eb.com/dinosaurs/index2.html>)

Learn how scientists' theories about dinosaurs have changed through the years.

Meet the Dinosaurs (<http://www.coff.edu/ete/modules/mse/dinosaurflr/meet.html>)

The Staircase of Time at this site is an excellent resource for discovering when dinosaurs lived.

Dinosaurs (<http://www.bbc.co.uk/dinosaurs>)

This site is full of sights, sounds, and information about dinosaurs and the times they lived in.

Dinorama (<http://www.nationalgeographic.com/dinorama>)

Discover a variety of dinosaur information from past issues of National Geographic.

Dinosaur Guide (<http://dsc.discovery.com/stories/dinos/dinos.html>)

Explore how dinosaurs looked, moved, sounded, and behaved.

Arthur's Dinosaur Clipart (<http://www.arthursclipart.com>)

This site offers large images of a variety of dinosaurs.

Dinosaur Clipart (<http://www.glambam.com/clipart/dinosaur/dino1.html>)

Glambam Animations offers a number of dinosaur images.

Prehistoric Animals Clipart (<http://classroomclipart.com/cgi-bin/kids/imageFolio.cgi?direct=Dinosaurs>)

Classroom Clipart provides several pages of dinosaur images.