

Space Hotel Set to Open in 2012

Use the News

Comprehension Check

Does each statement below tell something true or false about this week's news story? Circle the letter T if the statement is true. Circle F if the statement is false.

- T F 1. The first trip to the "space hotel" is planned for 2012.
- T F 2. Each hotel pod will hold two guests.
- T F 3. The trip into space will start at a spaceport built on a mountain.
- T F 4. Travelers to the space hotel must train for eight weeks before the flight.
- T F 5. The trip from the spaceport to the space hotel will take about 3 days.
- T F 6. Passengers will circle Earth about once every 15 minutes.
- T F 7. Space hotel guests will wear special suits made of velvet.
- T F 8. Tour guides will take guests on a walk into space.
- T F 9. The trip to the space hotel will cost each traveler about $40 million.
- T F 10. More than three dozen travelers have reserved a spot at the space hotel.

Main Idea

Color the circle next to the statement that best describes the main idea of this week's News for You story.

- Space hotel guests will wear special clothing.
- The first trip to a space hotel is scheduled for 2012.
- Some people say the 2012 trip will not blast off as planned.
- The space travelers will see the sun rise 15 times.

Vocabulary Builder: Idioms

In this week's news story, you read about people who say the space hotel is just "pie in the sky." Each sentence below includes a food idiom in bold letters. On the line below each sentence, explain the idiom's meaning in your own words.

1. Thomas needed money for the movie so he had to butter up his father.
-

2. We should have known the half-baked idea would not work.
-

3. Please don't spill the beans about the surprise party.
-

4. My aunt's ring looked expensive, but she got it for peanuts.
-