"We don't just borrow words; on occasion, English has pursued other languages down alleyways to beat them unconscious and rifle their pockets for new vocabulary."

—Booker T. Washington, American educator, writer, and leader of the African American community, 1856–1915

Most of the words in the Word Bank are Anglicized versions of foreign words or draw deeply on words in other languages. Choose one to complete each sentence below. Notice that one word fits two sentences. Yes, do use your dictionary.
