

I Imagine. . .

Choose an animal, real or imagined, to describe for your classmates. Draw a picture of the animal you have chosen. Write a vivid description of this animal in story or poetic form. Read your writing to the class and ask them to draw the animal they see as they hear your words. Then, share your picture with your classmates. How do your animals compare?

