

Name _____

Multicultural Communities

People from all over the world live in the United States. This means that people from many different cultural backgrounds live in the same communities. Talk to the people in your classroom, school, or community to learn more about the cultures that are part of your city or town.

- ☛ Does anyone in your class, school, or community come from a different country? List the countries here: _____

- ☛ Find a person to interview who has a different culture than you.
 1. What foods do they eat? _____

 2. What holidays do they celebrate? _____

 3. How do they celebrate special days? _____

 4. What languages do they speak? _____

 5. Why did they come to the United States? _____

 6. How are things in the United States different from the country they came from?

Challenge: Except for Native Americans, everyone who lives in the United States now came from a different country at some point. Research to find out what country or countries your ancestors came from.