

... and if you bite a chile pepper - get ready to yell!

8

Peppers

Peppers can be big. Peppers can be small.

6

Peppers can be sweet.

3

A pepper plant grows in a garden.

2

Peppers can have many names like banana and bell. . .

7

Peppers can be spicy.

4

Peppers grow in many colors: red, yellow and green.

5

Pepper Leaf Pattern

Teacher Directions: Make several patterns for students to use. Use with pages 78–80.

Directions:

1. Trace on green bulletin board paper.
2. Make a stem by twisting green bulletin board paper and attach to pepper bush.

Chile Pepper Stem Pattern

Teacher Directions: Copy onto white construction paper. Use with pages 77–80.

Directions:

1. Color stem using brown crayon.
2. Cut out and attach to pepper plant.

Chile Pepper Pattern

Teacher Directions: Copy onto white construction paper. Use with pages 77–80.

Directions:

1. Paint peppers using yellow, green, or red paint.
2. When the peppers are dry, cut them out and attach them to the pepper plant.

Bell Pepper Pattern

Teacher Directions: Copy onto white construction paper. Use with pages 77–79.

Directions:

1. Paint pepper using red, green, or yellow paint.
2. Color stem using a brown crayon.
3. Cut out and attach to pepper plant.

