

I make up a cage of bones,
Hidden underneath your chest;
Change R to B and I keep,
Baby's clothes from getting messed.

What am I?

Dolphins use me to swim,
And I often come in twos;
Make F a W,
I'm the opposite of lose.

What am I?

I rhyme with bit and I'm,
Clothes the size you can wear;
Change my F to S and find,
I'm what you do in that chair.

What am I?

I make up a cage of bones,
Hidden underneath your chest;
Change R to B and I keep,
Baby's clothes from getting messed.

Change my F to S and find,
I'm what you do in that chair.
