Moving On Up!

The end of the school year is drawing near. What advice do you have for the kids who soon will be starting the grade you are now completing?

If you run out of room above, use the back of this page or get another sheet of paper.

I don't mean to "bug" you, but you might

- think about some lessons you have learned about how to succeed in your current grade.
- think about which lesson you would like to share with the kids who will be in your current grade next year.
- check your writing for errors in spelling, grammar, and punctuation.
