

1. What does the poet use to create a rhythm?

- A rhyming lines
- B conflict
- C resolution
- D onomatopoeia

2. Read line 1 of the poem.

River, river, running through the land,

What type of figurative language is present?

- A alliteration
- B simile
- C metaphor
- D onomatopoeia

3. How does the poet make the river seem human?

- A by mentioning boats with people on them
- B by describing the movement of the river
- C by explaining the direction the river flows
- D by giving the river an actual voice

4. Why is “River, River” considered a work of poetry?

- A It is written in complete sentences.
- B It has characters and a setting.
- C It has a narrator.
- D It has rhyming lines.

5. What is the poem divided into?

- A sections
- B stanzas
- C paragraphs
- D verses

6. What is the rhyme scheme of the poem?

- A AAAA BBBB
- B ABCD ABCD
- C ABAB BCBC
- D AABB BBCC