I Am the Football

Write a story about what it would be like to be the football in a game. Remember to include thoughts, feelings and what you would be hearing and seeing as the ball to make the story exciting to read.