

Winter Sleep

By Scholastic

After you listen to the poem, "Winter Sleep," answer the questions below.

Shhhh!

Don't make a peep!

In her hide-away nest, mouse is asleep.

Cozily dozing while winter winds blow and the forest around her fills up with snow.

She's patiently waiting for winter to pass,

for spring to bring some nice fresh grass.

Till then, tiptoe as you go through the snow,

knowing mouse is asleep in her nest below.

Shhhhhh!

1. Are there any words at the end of sentences that rhyme? What are they? Underline them and then write them down. _____
_____

2. How did the poem make you feel? _____

3. Was there a part of the poem that you could imagine while it was being read? Which part? _____
_____