

Honest or Not Honest

Read the scenarios and decide if the person was being honest, which means telling the truth.

1. Henry is playing at a friend's house. He and his friend are comparing cards and playing with them. Henry really likes one of the cards that his friend has. As they are playing, the card that Henry really liked ends up in his pile. His mom comes to get him and he takes his pile of cards and goes home. When he gets home, he realizes that he accidentally took his friend's card home. Henry's friend calls him to ask if he accidentally took the card and Henry tells him he did not take it.

Was Henry honest? _____

2. Thea gets to school and realizes that she does not have her homework with her. She is really upset because it took her a while last night to complete it. She thought she put it into her backpack, but it is not there. When Thea's teacher asks her where her homework is, she tells the teacher that she did it, but she forgot it at home.

Was Thea honest? _____

3. Juanita is helping her mom make cookies. They are making cookies to have for dessert when her grandparents come over. Juanita's mom asks her not to eat any of the cookies so that they have enough. When Juanita's mom walks out of the room, Juanita takes a cookie and eats it. Juanita's mom comes back in the room and asks her if she had a cookie. Juanita tells her mom that she did not eat a cookie.

Was Juanita honest? _____