

Migration Word Problems

Solve the word problem below using either multiplication or division. Then, write your own word problems that use multiplication or division and are about migration.

1. A group of ducks were flying south for the winter. There are 60 ducks in the group. They decide to split up into five equal different groups. How many ducks end up in each group?

2.

3.

4.

5.
