

Name: _____

Date: _____

President John Adams

The paragraph below tells about a fascinating person born in October. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

John Adams was born in massachusetts in October 30, 1735. Educated at harvard university, he wanted the colonys to been independent from england. After two terms as vice president, Adams became president. He was the first president to live in the White House. On his first night their, Adams wrote, "May none but honest and wize men ever rule under this roof." John Adams served one term. President Thomas Jefferson replace him.

© Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.

Name: _____

Date: _____

President John Adams

The paragraph below tells about a fascinating person born in October. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

John Adams was born in massachusetts in October 30, 1735. Educated at harvard university, he wanted the colonys to been independent from england. After two terms as vice president, Adams became president. He was the first president to live in the White House. On his first night their, Adams wrote, "May none but honest and wize men ever rule under this roof." John Adams served one term. President Thomas Jefferson replace him.

© Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.