

Name: _____

Date: _____

William Penn

The paragraph below tells about a fascinating person born in October. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

William Penn, was born in England on October 14 1644. A follower of the quaker religion, Penn dreamed of establishing a place where people would be free to worship in what ever way they wanted. He recieved the land he wished for from Englands King Charles II He settled that land as a colony called Pennsylvania. Penn traveled twice to Pensylvania but each time he had to return to England? He died in England in 1718.

© Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.

Name: _____

Date: _____

William Penn

The paragraph below tells about a fascinating person born in October. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

William Penn, was born in England on October 14 1644. A follower of the quaker religion, Penn dreamed of establishing a place where people would be free to worship in what ever way they wanted. He recieved the land he wished for from Englands King Charles II He settled that land as a colony called Pennsylvania. Penn traveled twice to Pensylvania but each time he had to return to England? He died in England in 1718.

© Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.