

Name: _____

Date: _____

California Statehood

The paragraph below tells about a special date in September history. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling and grammar.

California become a state in September, 1850. Today it is the most populous state, with large citys like San Francisco, San diego and Los Angeles. Only the states of Alaska and Texas are big in size than California. California, which borders the country of mexico, is often called "The Golden State." Do you know about Californias tallest and oldest citizens. The states redwood trees grow to be 370 foot tall and live more than 1,000 years.

Copyright © Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.

Name: _____

Date: _____

California Statehood

The paragraph below tells about a special date in September history. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling and grammar.

California become a state in September, 1850. Today it is the most populous state, with large citys like San Francisco, San diego and Los Angeles. Only the states of Alaska and Texas are big in size than California. California, which borders the country of mexico, is often called "The Golden State." Do you know about Californias tallest and oldest citizens. The states redwood trees grow to be 370 foot tall and live more than 1,000 years.

Copyright © Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.