

Name: _____

Date: _____

James Forten, Free Black Man

The paragraph below tells about a special date in September history. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

James Forten was born a free black man on September 2 1766. When he was 14 year old, he went to work on a American warship. The ship was capture and Forten was held prisoner fore seven months. After his release, Forten became an apprentice sailmaker. He eventually bought the companie. His sucess made him one of the wealthiest people in Philadelphia. He used his money to buy slaves's freedom and to help fund the abolitionist movement?

Copyright © Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.

Name: _____

Date: _____

James Forten, Free Black Man

The paragraph below tells about a special date in September history. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? Look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

James Forten was born a free black man on September 2 1766. When he was 14 year old, he went to work on a American warship. The ship was capture and Forten was held prisoner fore seven months. After his release, Forten became an apprentice sailmaker. He eventually bought the companie. His sucess made him one of the wealthiest people in Philadelphia. He used his money to buy slaves's freedom and to help fund the abolitionist movement?

Copyright © Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.