

Sharing

Read the short story. Then, think about the different ways that you can deal with someone who doesn't want to share. Choose one of those ways, write a sentence about it and then draw a picture of what you would do.

Sarah loved to play in the sandbox at the park. When she got to the park, she would run over, sit down and start building sand castles. One day when she got to the park, she saw another boy already playing there. She sat down and started to play, but the other boy would not share any of the toys with Sarah. What would you do if you were Sarah?

I would _____
