

Each sentence below contains several capitalization errors. Some words and phrases that should be capitalized are not; some words and phrases that should not be capitalized are. Make the needed corrections.

1. My Grandfather fought in the korean war and in world war II.
2. In history class, we're studying the revolutionary war and about the first President of the United States.
3. The league of nations was replaced by the united nations.
4. I've seen the California angels play Baseball in Anaheim Stadium.
5. The most common religion in japan is buddhism.
6. Our puerto rican neighbors speak spanish at home.
7. Most people prefer either dannon or yoplait yogurt.
8. Jay got a McDonald's chicken salad and a cup of wendy's chili.
9. Jonathan is jewish, and his family celebrates hanukkah.
10. Jamila, who is from kenya, knows how to speak swahili