

Winter Holidays Around the World

Use the link below to learn about winter holidays with which you may not be familiar. Read about the holidays, then use the squares to write or draw what you learned.

Link: http://www.whyzz.com/what-are-some-other-winter-holidays-celebrated-around-the-world

Junkanoo is celebrated in the Bahamas.

A large, empty rounded square box with a black border, intended for students to write or draw about the Junkanoo holiday.

Hogmanay is celebrated in Scotland.

A large, empty rounded square box with a black border, intended for students to write or draw about the Hogmanay holiday.

St. Lucia Day is celebrated in Sweden.

A large, empty rounded square box with a black border, intended for students to write or draw about St. Lucia Day.

Eid-al-Adha is celebrated by Muslims worldwide.

A large, empty rounded square box with a black border, intended for students to write or draw about Eid-al-Adha.